

Dear parents/carers

It's been another sunny and enjoyable week at school! Ironically, the only day of rain was when we took our whole school photo – but fortunately the rain held off and everyone smiled beautifully. The photographer told me it was ideal camera conditions! This week the pupils have continued to enjoy our fabulous singing pool. They also had a special music workshop today with Nick Rye, Head of Music at the Duke of Kent School. He taught us a few musical numbers, which ties in with the theme of this year's Ewhurst Carnival on Saturday 5 August (remember the date!).

Speaking of special events, we can't wait for tomorrow's Summer Fair! Do please join us, with a hungry tummy and a few pennies in the pocket to support the school. Every contribution means a great deal to us! Thanks in advance to the amazing work of the PTA in putting on this event.

Next week the whole school will be participating in activities for our "Feeling Good Week" and thinking about how 'it's good to be me!'. On Monday Lee will be running his annual Skip Hop workshops for all classes. Tuesday is multi activity morning where the children will have the opportunity to self-select activities including arts, sports, construction and mindfulness as a whole school. On Wednesday its Move Up Morning! The children will be entering school by going straight in to their new class room for registration. Apple Class children will be going in to Holly Class room via the gate outside Cherry. Holly Class will be going in to the Cherry Class room via their normal gate. They will spend the morning in their new classroom getting to know their new teacher. Cherry Class children on site will go in to the Dove Centre. On Thursday morning we have the Pet Service at 9:15am outside the church. On Friday we will be going on our whole school trip to Sayers Croft. All children will need a picnic lunch, a water bottle, sensible footwear (no open toes), a sun hat and will need sun cream applied before being dropped off. Cherry Class children will need to be in at least knee length shorts as they will be in a harness for their activities. Children will still swim on Wednesday and Thursday as usual. Lego Coding and tennis Clubs will begin next week too, so it's going to be a packed week!

I wish you all a happy, sunny weekend with lots of fun at the Fair!

Best wishes,

Mr. Walters
