

Dear parents/carers,

It's been another full week of learning and fun at our school. A real highlight for Cherry Class was a trip to Guildford cathedral for a special Advent Workshop. The class were brilliant ambassadors for the school, showing respect throughout the visit and listening attentively to the stories and instructions. The cathedral staff hosted us so well and it was wonderful to be the only school visiting on the day – we felt very special! Apple Class enjoyed a fun afternoon in Forest school and gladly, it remained dry the whole time. This week the children in Apple Class have been learning all about the Gingerbread Man story, through acting, writing and a whole range of craft activities. It was wonderful to hear children on the playground engaging in imaginative play, shouting 'You can't catch me, I'm the Gingerbread Man!'

The build up to Christmas is in full flow. Nativity rehearsals are going very well and the sound of singing from the hall is already creating a wonderful atmosphere throughout the school. I have been Impressed by the quality of singing and Mrs Gosling has been doing a super job training the melodic voices!

Have a lovely weekend and keep safe,

Mr. Walters
